LOOKING FOR THE COMET.

The streets of Alexandria were alive last night with people who gazed earnestly toward all points of the compass in futile endeavors to get a glimpse of Halley's comet.

Shooter's Hill was as animated as last spring when during home-coming week President Taft and other dignitaries gathered on that eminence. Windmill Hill was also visited by numbers who imagined the celestial visitor was to appear over the Maryland hills. The heavens were clear and the moon and planets were brilliant, but no trace of the comet could be found, even at the time when Mother Earth was supposed to be bathed in the tail of the wanderer.

There were no suicides reported nor injuries for commissions de lunatic inquired, although there was apparent nervousness on the part of some. The only accident reported was to a well-known citizen who was so unfortunate as to fall overboard. Like the a-tronmer in the fable who was continually looking up at the heavens until he finally tumbled into a well, the Alexandrian had stationed himself with others on the narrow bridge which extends to the end of the dock at the foot of King street.

While anxiously peering at the skies and wishing for the appearance of the comet, he leaned against the rail railing which gave way and he was soon floundering in the water. He managed to regain terra firma, but lost his spectacles.

The comet is scheduled to appear in the western heavens shortly after sunset this evening.

ORIGIN OF COMETS.

Prof. T. J. J. See, astronomer in charge of the United States Naval Observatory at Mare Island, announced yesterday, as the outcome of years of research in cosmical evolution, a theory on the origin of comets, which, he said, were some of the primitive masses once forming the solar system, and could be popularly described as "immature, undeveloped planets."

In the course of researches made at Mare Island during the last two years on the origin of the solar system, said Professor See, "I have proved that comets are really survivals of the outer shell of ancient nebula from which our system was developed. All the inner parts of the nebula have been cleared away in producing sun, planets and satellites, but many small masses still survive on the outer shell of the old nebula. These are the comets."

DAVIS CONVICTED.

John O. Davis, former member of the Bar, of the District of Columbia, who entered a plea of insanity as a defense to the charges of false pretenses and embezzlement upon which he was placed on trial 10 days ago, was yesterday afternoon convicted in Original Court No. 2, in Washington.

Davis was accused of having obtained more than $200,000 from investors, and was specifically charged with misappropriating $12,000 of that amount which he obtained from Dr. R. Lee Wilkins, of Alexandria, and from others.

When the verdict was announced, Davis, who apparently had slept through all of yesterday morning's session, waked up long enough to say: "I thank you, gentlemen. You will all be properly rewarded."

Counsel for Davis moved for a new trial. The motion will be argued later.

THE CONDEMNED DAREKES.

Mr. F. P. Russell, returned from Richmond last night. While in that city he called upon Governor Mann and during his visit the cases of Henry Smith, Calvin Johnson, Richard Pines and Eugene Dorsey, the condemned negroes, were brought up. The governor told Mr. Russell that he would finally dispose of the case next month, and that there would be no more respite. His excellency said nothing which in any way indicated what course he would pursue in disposing of the cases.

KNIGHTS OF HONOR.

The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Honor, of Virginia, was held yesterday in Murphy's Hotel, Richmond, with every officer of the lodge and delegates from all over the state present. Grand Dictator A. S. Woodson, of Staunton, presided. The books and report of Grand Reporter Thomas D. Ballie, of Nassau, were examined and found to be correct.

Rockefeller would go broke if he should spend his entire income trying to prepare a better medicine than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for diarrhoea, dysentery or bowel complaints. Mr. Ralph Dineen and Miss Margaret Brill, both of Washington, were married yesterday afternoon at the rectory of Grace Church, by Rev. Edgar Carpenter.

Miss Alice Nowman, of Pittsburgh, Pa., is the guest of Miss Margaret Green.

POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

A meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners was held last night. Capt. Albert Bryan presided in the absence of Mayor Pafl.

Chief Godes submitted in report for the month of April.

The question of extra policemen was brought to the attention of the board by Commissioner Fisher. It was shown there are now five special policemen, and that the board has power to designate not more than thirty.

It was decided by the board that any street fender or preacher who is responsible for the blocking of sidewalks will be subject to arrest under the head of creating a nuisance.

THE LATE CAPT WILLIAMS.

Captain Charles U. Williams, of Richmond, Va., who died suddenly in San Francisco on Friday last, was aide-de-camp on the staff of General Montgomery D. Corse, who commanded one of the fighting brigades in the Army of Northern Virginia, in which was included the old regiment, the 17th Virginia. The surviving members of that band of heroes will remember Captain Williams and recall his coolness and courage in action. Captain Herbert Bryant, of this city, is the only member left of the military family of General Corse. The funeral of Captain Williams is expected to take place in Richmond Sunday evening next, the 22d.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS.

A meeting of the Sunday School Workers' Association was held last night at the Young People's Building. It was decided that all men who are to participate in the Bible class parade in Washington tomorrow evening meet at the Young People's Building in time to leave Alexandria on the 4:00 train. All male members of Bible classes over sixteen years of age are urged to unite. The Virginia headquarters will be at the Luther Place Memorial Church, 14th street and Massachusetts avenue, northwest.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Isaac Haubley, colored, 23 years old, was struck on the head with a brick by Clarence Grady, also colored, in Washington last Saturday night and died yesterday Grady was arrested and locked up on a charge of murder. The two men, it is said, had engaged in a fight. Grady is a native of Strasburg and formerly lived in the northeastern section of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Suter will make their home there about June 1st. This leaves only one of the 10 room and two 8 room houses unsold of those that were completed this spring.

EVENING OF SONG AND STORY.

Arrangements have been completed for the evening of song and story to be given at the Young People's building tomorrow, Friday, evening at 8 o'clock for the benefit of the "public drinking fountain" to be erected by Mr. Vernon Chapter, D. ## ANOTHER CONTEST.

There was a cake-baking contest at Edward Quinn &amp; Son's store, corner of St. Asaph and Oronoco streets, yesterday afternoon. A deed was recorded in the Corporation Court today from A. J. Fair and wife to W. E. La'ham, transferring to the latter a house and lot on the north side of Wolfe street, between Lee and Union.

Candidates for the election as members of the City Council to be held on the second Tuesday of June, the 14th, must file their names with the clerk of the Corporation Court by Wednesday, the 25th of May.

An old colored citizen while looking in the skies last night for something, he did not know what, remarked that he did not believe the white people knew anything more about the comet than did the colored people. And all who heard him agreed.

A horse attached to a baker's wagon was bitten by a dog on lower Prince street yesterday, and later in the day the same horse was bitten by another canine in the southern section of the city. Complaint was made to the police, and officers today notified the owners of the dogs they must keep them on their own premises in future.

Richard Ray Ross, treasurer of the Farmers &amp; Merchants' Banking &amp; Trust Company of Leesburg, who committed suicide on Tuesday morning at his home in that town by shooting himself with a shotgun, was a son of Mr. Fenton T. ## THIRD ARBITRATOR.

Prof. William B. Vance, dean of the George Washington University Law School, was appointed third arbitrator today in the dispute over wages between telegraphers and the Southern Railway. He was named by Labor Commissioner Neill and Chairman Knapp of the Interstate Commerce Commission, and will act with J. S. B. Thompson, for the railway, and John J. Dermody, for the telegraphers.

Sixty-first Congress.

SENATE

A resolution was introduced in the Senate today by Senator Borah, introducing the bureau of labor to investigate the conditions of employment in the iron and steel industry, the wages paid and all other features connected therewith. No action was taken.

Section nine of the railroad bill came up for discussion in the Senate today, the amendment providing that no increased rate, fare, charge or change in classification shall become effective until after approval by the Interstate Commerce Commission being the pending question.

The amendment was withdrawn and later offered as a substitute for one offered by Senator Burton, that the commission shall first consider proposed rate increases.

The purpose of the shift was to bring a direct vote on the Commerce amendment.

Senator Cummins spoke at some length in explanation of his amendment.

The regular republicans and democrats did not care for the speed-making today and but few of them remained to listen. This caused a little filibuster to be started to prevent a vote until Mr. Cummins could return, having been suddenly called away.

HOUSE

The House today refused to increase from 25 to 35 per cent the amount which shall be paid of the money received from each forest reserve to the State or territory in which the reserve is located. The present law as contained in the agricultural appropriation bill as it passed the House, provides that 25 shall be paid to the State. The Senate increased this amount to 35 per cent and the House refused to agree to the Senate provision by a vote of 108 to 57.

Mr. Byrd, of Mississippi, in the course of an attack on the tariff bill declared that he agreed with Speaker Cannon in his assertion that the insurgents should be hanged. He criticized them severely for treachery against the democrats in not deposing Speaker Cannon. His speech was a vigorous castigation of the Payne bill in which he denounced every schedule.

"KICKED UPSTAIRS."

Though dead, Tom Platt yet speaks. He tells in his autobiography, which will appear in the next number of McClure's Magazine, a dramatic story of how he "kicked Roosevelt upstairs" to the vice presidency, and thus brought more trouble on this country than anything that has happened in many years. We are all sorry that he did it. Mr. Platt was sorer than anybody else before he died. The nomination of Mr. Roosevelt was forced by Platt, with the assistance of Mr. Quay and Mr. Mark Hanna, all of whom lived to regret it. The story is an old one, but it is none the less interesting on that account. When Platt insisted on his acceptance of the nomination, the colonel assured him that he could serve Platt better as governor of New York than as vice president of the United States. This is a reflection upon the character of this man; but Platt evidently remembered all that had passed between them when Roosevelt was being kicked upstairs.—[Richmond Times Dispatch.

Adams Express Office Rubbed

Oil City, Penn., May 19.—A package containing $32,024.24 in paper and silver money was stolen from the office of the Adams Express Company here early today. The police have no clues.

The money was deposited by Cashier S. S. Montello, of Philadelphia, Paymaster for the Pennsylvania Railroad, who arrived from Olean yesterday afternoon.

When night Manager J. A. Truby came on duty, the package was turned over to him. It was too bulky to go into the office safe, so Truby placed it under the counter by his desk. He declared that at 2:15 this morning he left his office to meet a train. When he returned the door was open and the money gone.

Damaging Evidence.

New York, May 19.—Damaging evidence directly implicating several former employees of the American Sugar Refining Company was produced today at the trial of Charles R. Hulse, secretary of the sugar trust, and his associates for conspiracy to defraud the government; Fred Schwepfinger, who swore that he came from Germany in 1891 with a letter of introduction to former Cashier Bundernagel, and was put to work by that official as a tallyman on the docks. He was shown the steel spring the government alleges was used to manipulate the scales and asked if he ever saw it before. "Possibly not that one," he said. "But all of the tallymen on the dock had them and we were ordered to use them."
